

August 16, 2010

The Executive Committee
c/o President Zainudeen Popoola
Eko Club International

Dear Honorable President,

Re: Recipients for the 2010 Dr. Nurudeen Olowopopo's Scholarship Awards

Blessings! The Dr. Nurudeen Olowopopo's Scholarship Awards Committee has completed its review process, and it is with great pleasure that I report back to you the findings of the committee. This year, being the inception year, the committee faced a daunting task of selecting five (5) scholarship recipients from a pool of well rounded and high-achieving students. Our committee established a very detailed and objective selection process to make the final determination of the award recipients.

Based on the very rigorous selection criteria, I am pleased to announce the five (5) selected students below, according to the order of their performance scoring (top being the strongest):

Name	City, State & Country
1. Folake Thomas	Bartlett, Tennessee, USA
2. Yetunde L. Olowo	Starkville, Mississippi, USA
3. Bisi Okoya	Trenton, New Jersey, USA
4. Monsurat Olushi	Lakewood, New Jersey, USA
5. Olayinka N. Bombata	Catford, London, England

The Scholarship Committee agrees on the selected candidates by a unanimous common consent at the committee meeting on August 15, 2010. I would like to express my appreciation to the members of the Scholarship Committee for their exceptional work, and according proper diligence to this highly important assignment.

On behalf of the 2010 Scholarship Committee, I would like to congratulate the awardees and wish them well in their future endeavors. Please join me in congratulating the scholarship recipients on their success.

Please call me on (651) 338-4268 with any questions.

Regards,

Prince Rilwan Alowonle
Chair., Dr. Nurudeen Olowopopo's Scholarship Committee